1. Welcome [Nicole Martins]
Nicole Martins welcomes everyone at the meeting, celebrating 15 years of CAM.

2. Upcoming conference [Mary Beth Oliver]
Mary Beth Oliver announces the next Conference’s theme: “Communication and Global Human Rights”. It will be held in Gold Coast, Australia, from the 20th of June until the 24th of June.

3. Minutes Approval for 2022 [Nicole Martins]
The minutes of the 2022 ICA conference were approved.

4. 2023 Conference Statistics [Nicole Martins]
CAM currently has 354 members, which is above pre-pandemic numbers. We retained $3600 from the previous year. Current expenses included $500 for the two Top Student travel grants, $250 for the Dissertation Prize, $50 for award plaques. The current budget available for next year is $4326.40.

5. Executive Board Meeting [Nicole Martins]
Nicole discusses that a new task force has been created regarding the improvement of country/tier organization. There has been great success regarding the regional hubs. The following conferences are discussed: Australia (2024), Denver (2025), and 2026 is uncertain. The pricing structure has been discussed and the executive board asks for feedback regarding the app (Whova). A new class of ICA fellows was voted.

6. Conference Submission Details [Drew Cingel]
Drew thanks all the CAM members. The overall acceptance rate of ICA was 43%. We had 23 research escalator submissions, of which 12 were accepted. There were 5 session submissions, 1 accepted, and 126 individual full paper submissions, 58 accepted.

7. Thank You! [Nicole Martins]
Nicole Martins thanks the mentors from the Research Escalator Section, the Reviewers, the Awards Committee Members, and the CAM officers. Congratulations to Vice Chair Elect, Sarah Coyne. Feedback from the survey is discussed, more specifically additional opportunities for junior scholars and graduate students to meet senior scholars.

8. Announcements
Jessica Piotrowski speaks as associate editor of Journal of Communication and reaches out to the CAM members to submit to Journal of Communication.
